

NATUZZI ANNOUNCES RESIGNATION OF A BOARD MEMBER, PIETRO LABRIOLA

Santeramo in Colle, Bari, Italy – May 29, 2026 – Natuzzi S.p.A. (NYSE: NTZ) (“Natuzzi” or the “Company”) today announced that Mr. Pietro Labriola has resigned from his position as a member of the board of directors.

Pietro Labriola, who has served as a non-executive director of the Company since July 2025, has decided to step down due to increased professional commitments.

Pietro Labriola commented: “This decision of mine is not certainly related to the Company’s current business and industrial challenges. On the contrary, I remain confident that Natuzzi may pursue an adequate turnaround, provided it maintains strategic clarity and execution continuity. My resignation stems solely from increased time commitments related to my other professional roles, which now require my direct and continuous focus at this time.

Because Natuzzi requires the full and consistent engagement of every board member during this strategic phase, I believe stepping down is the most responsible action in the best interest of the Company and its stakeholders. I want to thank the Chairman and the entire board of directors for the constructive collaboration, and I stand ready, compatibly with my commitments, to support an orderly transition.”

Pasquale Natuzzi, Executive Chairman of the board of directors and Chief Executive Officer ad interim, commented “On behalf of the entire board of directors, I want to thank Pietro for his dedication, especially during this demanding period of transition. His insights have been valuable as we lay the groundwork for our recovery, and we wish him the very best in all future endeavors”.
