Competitive Advantage: Entire control over the Supply Chain

Natuzzi represents a unique reality, controlling the end-to-end supply chain:

From the search for trends to the procurement of materials...

From factory production to delivery to customers, completing the experience with a wide service and support network

Our DNA: Innovation, Design and Function

- Our collections blend design, function, colors and materials to create harmony for our customers
- We conceive and develop a new product only if it brings a clear technical and emotional benefit to consumer
- More than 50% of our sales are from functional products

Brand elevation:

- Through our Brand and Retail Journey we continue elevating our collections price point
- For instance, the price of our best seller product of Natuzzi Italia in US in 1998 was of 2.500$ vs 13.000$ in 2022
- Best seller products represent the best of our DNA and typically embed several technical features (e.g., motion, batteries,..) that make them distinctive

New dynamics shaping the market in the short- and mid-term

Short-term challenges

Energy cost

Emerging from the pandemic, international economic activity has ramped up demands on energy, further affected by the war Ukraine.

Supply chain disruption

The COVID-19 pandemic has affected companies' ability to maintain normal operations at manufacturing facilities and retail stores.

Perduring inflation

Rising cost of raw materials resulting from a strong global demand in the post-pandemic months has received further boost from energy-driven inflation.

High interest rates

Central banks have embarked on the highest round of interest rate hikes in decades to tackle rising inflation, spurring fears of an imminent global slowdown.

Geopolitical instability

18 The war in Ukraine has further increased the current global uncertainty prompting concerns for a global slowdown.

Mid-term trends

Private living

Home is becoming an office to work in, a sociable space to live convivial moments and a shelter to feel safe(r).

Middle-Class

The growing size of the middle class is expanding the potential of markets, while pushing them toward higher quality standards.

Company's DNA

Higher-end consumers are increasingly driven by a deeper attention to elements such as the history of the company, its mission and core values.

Sustainability

Sustainability can be a source of competitive advantages by rethinking production processes and qualifying the supplier base in a sustainable way.

Digitalization

Purchasing habits are fundamentally changing, as over half of the world's population is shopping online regularly.

New Role

'22-'26 plans have 8 main strategic drivers of «value creation»

Value creation is at the core of our management plan

3 main levers for accelerating value creation and increasing shareholder return on investment

Exceeding Market Rates of Growth by leveraging the strength of our Brands

- ✓ Scale in key geographic regions
U.S., China, U.K. and Italy
- ✓ Leverage JVs to accelerate growth in high potential geographies
JV in China with KUKA (July 2018)
JV in Singapore for the Rest of APAC (March 2022)
- ✓ Drive increased volume at existing stores
Replicate proven, efficient U.S. retail model to improve productivity
- ✓ Expand retail network
Continue and accelerate the transition towards retail (DOS and Franchising)

Accelerating Margin Expansion via proven programs underway

- ✓ Increase quality of sales
Continue to shift mix of sales to higher-margin branded products
- ✓ Continue the transition to retail so to expand margin
- ✓ Focus on production efficiencies
Prune complexity; outsourcing of production in Vietnam; Launch of improvement programs across all plants (factory 4.0)
- ✓ Disciplined rationalization of overhead in HQ and plant rationalization

Increasing Capital Efficiency with disciplined allocation of capital

- ✓ Rigorous approach to working capital management
- ✓ Adopt “asset light” model
- ✓ Dispose of non-core assets and redeploy cash (e.g., High Point)
- ✓ Increased focus (KPI, MBO) on margin and cash metrics

Empower the Brand through Retail to create Value in the Core markets.

China JV: an upside only partially reflected in our value

China represents a massive opportunity for growth

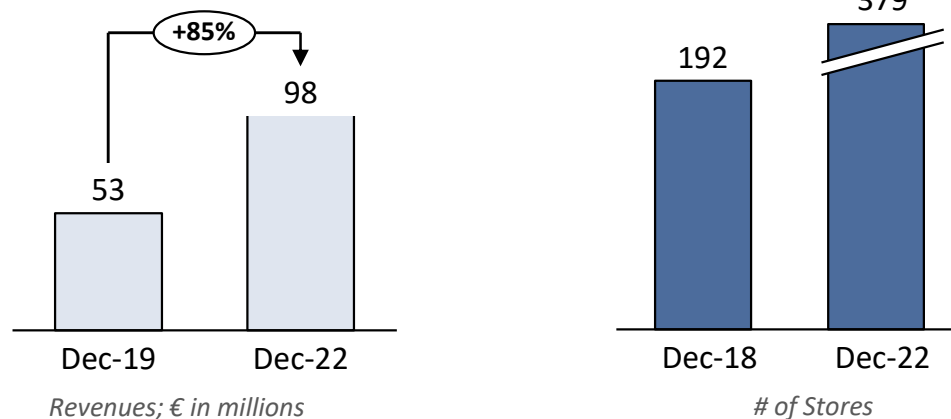

Structure

- JV agreement with KUKA Group, a leading listed player in the furnishings industry in China
- Established in 2018, Natuzzi holds a 49% equity stake in the JV
- Provides exclusive distribution of Natuzzi branded products through a network of directly operated and franchised stores in Greater China

Upsides

- Access to massive market
- Delivering strong revenue growth in high-teens
- Significant and growing cash position available to fuel local growth and for potential distribution to partners
- Track record and ambition to extend store footprint at fast pace
 - More than 100 stores opened in 2021
 - 39 stores added during 2022, despite the perduring COVID in China for most of the year.
